

87 Autism Awareness Month - Media Attention on Channel 11 tomorrow AM!

Dearest Advocates:

Welcome back from Spring Break! Hope everyone enjoyed time with their children. I know I did!

I wanted you to be aware that tomorrow, April 15th, Channel 11 (WXIA) will be airing a segment on an Autism classroom at Mashburn Elementary in Forsyth County. (Many thanks to Cathy M. for letting me know!)

The story is scheduled to air at approximately 6:15 a.m. and again during the noon broadcast. The Today Show is scheduled to feature a separate story about autism, which is why Channel 11 is airing our story tomorrow.

What a great way to continue to educate society regarding Autism and the upcoming Walk in Atlanta. Thanks to all the families that participated in this TV segment.

Education is definitely the key to success in helping others understand our precious children and the services they need to be successful in life!

Enjoy!

“UNITED – WE WILL MAKE A DIFFERENCE!”

Sincerely,

Heidi
